Priority is given to new and emerging program ministries that directly impact racial/ethnic communities in church and society.

- Expresses to the church and to the world its convictions, interpretations and concerns through its offices at The United Methodist Building, Washington, DC and the Church Center for the United Nations in New York City, NY and through its partnerships in The United Methodist Church and in society.

WHAT ARE THE GUIDELINES FOR SUBMITTING AN APPLICATION?

1. Applicants must meet eligibility requirements and submit a complete application by the stated deadline: January 10 for action by the Spring and August 10 for action by the Fall Board meetings of the General Board of Church and Society.

2. The program/project must directly impact one or more specific United Methodist racial/ethnic local church(es) or communities.

3. Racial/ethnic persons shall comprise the majority of those impacted by this program/project.

4. The program/project must focus on the self-identified needs of ethnic local church(es) and persons as they address one or more chronic social issues or concerns (cf: Social Principles of The United Methodist Church).

5. All policy and program decisions related to the program/project will be made by a Supervising Board, which shall be composed of a majority of racial/ethnic persons.

6. The program/project shall engage in one or more of the following activities and must be focused on moving a congregation, community, network or ministry toward justice, advocacy or organizing focused on sustainable, systemic social change:

   - Transformative Education relating to social, economic, public policy justice issues. Education through participatory seminars, workshops, consultations, and/or resource materials that engage communities to move from acts of mercy (direct service) to acts of justice (advocacy), advocacy or congregational based organizing.

     ✗ Example: A seminar on national and international affairs; a jurisdictional consultation on immigration issues.

   - Leadership training and formation that witness to social, economic and public policy issues within church and society.
Example: A local substance abuse training and action program, which includes alcohol and drug abuse prevention techniques; an ecumenical training workshop on the causes and effects of gun violence.

- Public Policy Advocacy and actions that have a direct impact on the lives of racial ethnic persons in the church and society.

Example: A project focusing on advocating for racial/ethnic justice in communities.

Consider these definitions as you submit your proposal:

A. Justice has to do with fairness, with what people deserve. It results from social structures that guarantee moral rights. Charity has to do with benevolence or generosity. It results from people’s good will and can be withdrawn whenever they choose.

B. Advocacy is acting, speaking or writing in support of a person or an issue. An Advocate is one who works for social change through addressing policy or programs on behalf of a group of people.

7. All funding received from the ELCG program must be used for actual programmatic components and not for salaries, purchase of office equipment, administrative costs, or direct delivery of services. The ELCG program will not fund a publication or video unless it is in the context of a larger program/project.

8. The intent of the ELCG Program is to provide initial seed money for programs/projects. Therefore, the ELCG Program gives priority to first-time applicants. After receiving a grant from GBCS, applicants may submit additional applications for subsequent funding cycles only if the program/project demonstrates that it has a new focus and monies awarded from the first grant have been expended.

9. Where applicable, the program/project leadership must with due diligence consult with the appropriate appointed Pastor of a local church, District Superintendent, Resident Bishop or their designee, the Conference Director of Connectional Ministries, the Conference Board of Church and Society Chairperson, the Conference Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee Chairpersons or their designee, regarding their request for funding.

10. For 2017-2020 requests for funding through the ELCG Program may not exceed $10,000 per application.
